Non-Profit Series: Phoenixville Public Library

The Phoenixville Public Library is your local library that is also a member of the Chester County Library System. The Chester County Library System is a “federated” system, meaning there is a District Center Library located in Exton, with seventeen member libraries throughout the county, all of which are able to combine resources. The Phoenixville Public Library is, in a typical month, the third-busiest member library in terms of material circulation.
